

Activity: Important Things

Individually

1. List three or four important things about the new vision of professional development.

2. Select the most important thing to you about the new vision of professional development and explain why you feel it is the most important.

With a Partner

1. Share what your most important thing is with your partner.
2. Discuss how this most important thing will guide your vision of professional development.
3. Discuss how other important things will support your vision.
